WHAT'S THE MATTER, YOU MORON?! DO YOU HAVE A PROBLEM WITH ME?!

THERE'S A BEGGARS' ASSOCIATION IN CAIRO. THEY HAVE DESIGNATED TURF AND ARE PAID TO SIT THERE...

I WONDER IF I'LL MAKE MORE MONEY IF I DISGUISE MYSELF AS A FOREIGN BEGGAR? MAYBE I'LL DO THAT FROM NOW ON.

HORUS, THE FALCON GOD, WAS WORSHIPED BY THE ANCIENT EGYPTIANS AS THE GUARDIAN OF THE ROYAL FAMILY.

ANCIENT EGYPTIANS USED FALCONS FOR HUNTING. THESE PREDATORY BIRDS GRACEFULLY SOARED THROUGH THE SKIES OVER THE NILE VALLEY.

THE EYE OF HORUS, ALSO KNOWN IN ANCIENT EGYPTIAN AS THE WADJET EYE, WAS SAID TO SEE ITS PREY FROM SEVERAL KILOMETERS AWAY.

★Personality: Awful ★IQ: Seems high
★History: Born as a purebred Boston Terrier, Iggy was purchased by a wealthy family when he was a puppy. As Iggy grew older, he became jaded at how stupid humans were and ran away. He was the "King of the Stray Dogs" when Avdol found him.
★Stand: The Fool. A Stand made of sand, The Fool can take any form. If it catches the wind it can glide. That's all there is to it, but since it's such a simple and versatile Stand, it's actually quite powerful. The Fool isn't very fast and has a difficult time reacting to sudden movements. In Iggy's mind, he thinks his Stand rivals Jotaro's Star Platinum.

A FALCON'S DESCENT CAN REACH A MAXIMUM SPEED OF 300 KILOMETERS PER HOUR. THIS IS FASTER THAN ANY OTHER ANIMAL (FOR REFERENCE--CHEETAHS: 101 KPH, CARL LEWIS: 36.4 KPH). FALCONS USE THEIR CLAWS TO TEAR INTO THEIR PREY'S VITAL BODY PARTS. EVEN AT SPEEDS REACHING 300 KPH, A FALCON IS ABLE TO PRECISELY TARGET ITS PREY.

IT'S POSSIBLE FOR BIRDS TO DIVE INTO WATER. LIKE HUMANS AND CANINES, A BIRD USES ITS LUNGS TO BREATHE, BUT BIRDS HAVE ADDITIONAL ORGANS CALLED "AIR SACS" WHERE THEY STORE AIR. BIRDS HAVE FIVE OR SIX AIR SACS IN THEIR CHEST AND STOMACH; THIS IS THE REASON THEY CAN FLY AT ALTITUDES OF 6,000 TO 7,000 METERS, WHICH WOULD MAKE HUMANS UNCONSCIOUS. EVEN IF THEY ARE STRANGLED, THEIR INTERNAL AIR SUPPLY WILL EXTEND THEIR LIFE FOR A FEW MINUTES. THUS, A BIRD CAN STAY UNDERWATER MUCH LONGER THAN A DOG!

JOJO'S BIZARRE ADVENTURE
PART 3
STARDUST CRUSADERS

Iggy

I never want to put restrictions on what I can draw in JoJo. Whether we're talking about something biological or having to do with physics, I like to take all kinds of things and depict them on the page. That's why I have animals show up in the story, as well as join the Joestar party. While I was working on Part 3, I wanted to add in an animal as a pet. Thus, I chose a dog to accompany them on the journey. To me, dogs symbolize loyalty and friendship. All you cat lovers out there might be wondering why I didn't pick a cat, but I feel like a cat would betray them somewhere along the line (laughs wryly). They may be a playmate for you, but they're not your friend. I always end up putting cats on the enemy side, like with how the elder D'Arby used them to cheat, which might say something about how I view them.

Just like with Polnareff and Kakyoin, I didn't originally plan for Iggy to join the Joestar party. I also didn't initially assign him a Stand and tarot card. I feel like The Fool is a perfect fit for Iggy, but at the time, it was the last card I had left to assign besides The World. Furthermore, I was considering having The Fool belong to an enemy instead. Things just kind of ended up working out the way they did, but given how much I love the design for The Fool, it's kind of crazy that it ended up being the last one left for me to assign.

When I design Stands, I often take inspiration from artifacts such as clothing, masks, and dolls from indigenous peoples. Once I fuse that aspect with something biological or mechanical, it makes a really unique design. Originally, I imagined Stands as being something inorganic powered by life force, so it makes sense that a lot of their designs are fusions between living beings and machines. The Fool's design starts out with a dog, and then adds on a Native American mask and the tires of a car. I think The Fool really represents my ideal design for a Stand.

I really enjoy looking at animal encyclopedias and reference books, but Iggy was actually the first animal I'd put into a main role in a manga. It was the first time I'd ever made one battle as well, so I used Yoshihiro Takahashi Sensei's Ginga: Nagareboshi Gin as a reference. The more I drew Iggy, the more I found myself becoming a dog lover. I actually thought about getting a Boston terrier, the breed that Iggy is, but I gave up on it, since given my job, it would be hard to take care of a dog. But if I were to ever get one, I think I'd really enjoy playing Frisbee with it. I guess I wouldn't get a Chihuahua or a toy poodle then, since they don't seem like they'd enjoy playing with me like that (laughs).

The story behind the new illustration for JoJo Part 3 08!

Q. Tires make up the lower half of The Fool. What inspired that?

A. Formula One race cars.

Shonen Jump was actually sponsoring a Formula One team back when this was being serialized. I'd see them in the magazine a lot. It's not as if The Fool is a super speedy Stand, but it was relevant at the time, so I worked it in. –Hirohiko Araki
